THE KINGDOM ORDER OF MINISTRY

To the Mighty Elders of Yisrael, in the Name of YAHUWAH our Father, and Yahushua our Redeemer, Greetings.

Beloved brethren, concerning the order of our local churches/congregations, consider the words of the apostle Paul as he reassured the Gentile converts at Ephesus: “Now therefore you are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellow citizens with the saints and of the household of YAHUWAH; and are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Yahushua the Messiah Himself being the chief corner stone...”

Notice, saints, that the ministerial foundation set by the Judean apostle does not include evangelists and pastor/teachers – the malakim and morim; many of whom eventually emerged from among the ranks of the newly naturalized Greeks themselves. And thereby, both a functional and ethnic distinction has been set between foundational and local ministry offices.

It is written, “Through wisdom is a house built; and by understanding it is established: And by knowledge shall the chambers be filled with all precious and pleasant riches” (Prov. 24:3-4). Clearly, the apostolic and prophetic offices are designed to provide foundational wisdom and understanding; and the local church, led by evangelists and pastor/teachers, must build upon that Hebraic foundation, with Christ Himself being the chief cornerstone.

The local malakim and morim must provide practical knowledge, so that a properly ordered church is furnished with the riches of the Holy Spirit; being built upon the apostolic and prophetic foundation of the Hebrew Yisraelite shaleakhim and nabim (Eph. 2:19-20).

For example, the apostle Paul wrote, “According to the grace of YAHUWAH which is given unto me; as a wise master-builder, I have laid the foundation, and another builds thereon. But let every man take heed how he builds thereupon” (1 Cor. 3:10). He then wisely admonished the Greco-Romanized, knowledge-worshiping Corinthian converts on this wise: “Let no man deceive himself. If any man among you seems to be wise in this world (in Greek philosophy), let him become a fool, that he may be wise (in Hebrew understanding)” (1 Cor. 3:18).

Beloved brethren, let us no longer err by esteeming practical knowledge and information above divine wisdom and understanding; lest our houses of faith collapse at the hour of great shaking...

Let our local evangelists and morim allow the foundational wisdom and understanding of the Hebrew apostles and prophets to undergird and direct the building up and furnishing of the local house with knowledge and information, lest they continue to labor in vain! Even so, Ahmen.

May the Grace, Mercy and Eternal Shal'm of Abba YAH be with you all.

IT'S KINGDOM TIME.
