A HOLY DECLARATION

TO FLEE OR NOT TO FLEE

That is the question... The answer? Hear me, you Hebrews: as an ancient set-apart nation moving in power and unity, our fathers did not flee from Egypt and Babylon!

This is an indisputable fact of Hebrew Yisraelite history. And even though there are individuals and groups among us who build community 'westward in Eden,' including TCVI-KYCN, the divine destiny of our people does in fact also include a collective awakening – and a new Exodus. (see Yakhezqel-Ezekiel, chapters 35-38.)

My beloved mishpachah, our fathers did not flee out of ancient Egypt. Mosheh overcame Pharaoh through the infinite power of YAH. We left in His power in glorious victory; in a nation-wide divine order and structure; some six hundred fifty thousand strong, not including women and children; and with great spoils from our captors. And neither did we flee from ancient Babylon.

In Egypt, we as an enslaved but emerging nation knew who we were. For we had the divine favor of our Elohim; with great signs, wonders, and miracles following. And we migrated into the wilderness of Egypt – still in the land where we were held captive. That is where Mosheh was commanded to lead our ancient fathers, by the preincarnate Yahushua, 'I AM.' SÉLAH. In fact, the only time our fathers ever fled a captivity as a people was during the Roman sieges on Yerushalayim-Jerusalem in the first century, according to the prophetic admonition of Yahushua Ha Mashiach – The Risen Head of the Eternal Royal Priestly Order of Melchizedek. Now

Hebrews, we as a mighty nation will overcome this ‘Egyptian’ captivity in like manner, just as it is written.

Shal’m Aleichem!

IT’S KINGDOM TIME.
