THE HIDDEN LEGACY: THE TRUE IDENTITY AND DESTINY OF 'BLACK AMERICANS'

An Overview

“And YAHUWAH shall bring you into Egypt again with ships... and there you shall be sold to your enemies for bondmen and bondwomen, and no man shall redeem you.” – Deuteronomy 28:68

It has often been said that the most segregated hour in American life is eleven a.m. on Sunday morning. This saying, however ironic, is clearly a manifest truth. In fact, the supposed 'Judeo-Christian' establishment, while claiming to hold the solution to the evils of racism, has in reality been its leading advocate. Following the lead of "Talmudic Judaism," with its unscriptural "curse of Ham" doctrine, 'Churchianity' has supplied the underlying rationale for "White Supremacy," which is at the root of all ethnic and theological confusion. In its wake, this damnable lie has left the holy nation and the world in a perpetual state of covetousness and deception.

Now, as you know, the Bible from Genesis to the Revelation was written within a Hebraic cultural framework. But the Holy Covenants have been grossly mishandled and misinterpreted through the religious culture of the western world. And this 'Greco-Roman' usurping of divine authority has created a spiritual crisis that beggars description...

For some five centuries now, from the onset of the European Renaissance – and the introduction of chattel slavery – the world has been deliberately misled into believing that the great patriarchs of the Bible, the ancient Hebrew Yisraelites, were Anglo-Saxons/Caucasians. In 1496, a mere four years after the Roman “Catholic” expulsion of Hebrew Yisraelites and “Moors” from Spain, the Italian artist Michelangelo was commissioned by the Vatican to create portraits and statues of Biblical figures, known for centuries to be Ibriy Yisraelim – Hebrew Yisraelites – in their own Euro-Gentile image and likeness. And yet to this day, pseudo-Christian Churchianity continues to insist that “the color line has been washed away by the blood of Jesus,” and that national identity somehow no longer applies. And so the story goes...

Surely, the yoke of “white supremacy” is a damnable lie that must be uprooted and destroyed! But then, how can it actually be done? The answer is simple: by revealing the true national identity and destiny of the primary target of global racism – the supposed ‘African American’ people!

For example, due to the involuntary nature of our original presence as slaves in America, of the scores of ethnic groups represented in the U.S., so-called “blacks” are the only community referred to with a continental rather than a national identity!

Notice that all other national ethnic groups, both in America and around the world, are knitted together and defined within the history and heritage of a common land, language and lifestyle – Ethiopian Americans, Greek Americans, Irish Americans, Korean Americans, and so on. So how can the so-called black man’s place in America finally be understood, and his place in the world respected, while his national identity remains a mystery? Ironically, the solution to this age-old dilemma is the key, not only to ending the scourge of “white supremacy,” but to establishing ethnic and doctrinal unity in the body of Christ! SÉLAH.

It is written, “Behold, the days come says YAHUWAH, that I will make a new covenant with the house of Yisrael and with the house of Yahudah.” (Jer. 31:31). Clearly, this is an ancient prophetic revelation of the New Testament, ratified by the shed blood of Yah’shua. (Heb. 8:8). And if the body of Christ at large is to receive its manifold blessings – including the ever-elusive ethnic and doctrinal unity of the faith – she must do so within the specific terms of the Covenant.

As with any contract, as a binding legal agreement, the New Testament was entered into by two principal parties. The identity of the first party is universally agreed upon: Almighty YAHUWAH Himself. But when it comes to the identity of the other party involved, much controversy still remains. The Commonwealth of Yisrael at large must finally come to terms with the fact that until this matter is resolved, any efforts toward seeing the promises of the Covenant fulfilled are utterly in vain. So despite its complexities, the first order of business is quite simple: we must come to a full understanding of the divine contract. And we must begin that process by accurately identifying the principal parties involved.

ABRAM OF UR

Despite the raging controversy over the true identity of the descendants of Ya'aqob, there is no such dispute when it comes to identifying the original father of the ancient Hebrew Yisraelites: Abraham. And in order to determine the "racial" and ethnic characteristics of Yisrael and Yahudah, and accurately identify the Covenant's second principal party, we must of course, begin at the beginning. We must first establish the 'race' and ethnicity of Abraham. And for purposes of this basic overview, our doing so will be brief, and go directly to the point.

Now according to Genesis 11, Abraham is originally from a city-state called Ur of the Chaldees. This area was located in what is modern day Iraq. And from every objective indicator – scriptural, archaeological, anthropological, geographical and historical – that region of the world was at that time, and to a great extent even today, populated by a dark-skinned people. For example, the ancient artistic renderings of Hebrew slaves by the Chaldeans, the indigenous peoples of the region, clearly depict an 'Afro-Asiatic' physical appearance.

Furthermore, common knowledge says it is a physiological impossibility for an ancient "white-skinned" people to have long withstood the routine one-hundred-degree-plus temperatures that were the norm in the land of Ur. And thus, the indigenous peoples obviously had to have been melanated. And even today, that area of the world is hardly populated by Anglo-Saxons/Caucasians.

And so, the bizarre assumption that Abram of Ur was "white-skinned" – and that, without any empirical evidence whatsoever – is patently absurd on its face. Abraham is obviously a dark-skinned man, just as were the rest of the indigenous peoples of the region.

THE SEVENTY SOULS

The Torah tells us that Abraham's direct descendants, the ancient Hebrew Yisraelites, while sojourning in Egypt for two hundred and fifteen years (not four hundred years), multiplied from seventy souls to in excess of six hundred thousand men, not including women and children, at the time of the Exodus under Mosheh-Moses. And unlike their Hebrew counterparts, the ancient Egyptians were descended from Ham, the son of Noah, who is universally recognized as the father of the ‘African’ nations. Therefore, the ancient Egyptians were also a dark-skinned people. So how then could the children of Yisrael grow from seventy souls into a multitude of millions in Egypt without mass intermarriage with Egyptian and other Hamitic women? As it is written, the children of Yisrael came out of Egypt under Moses “...a mixed multitude.” This simple fact alone makes it impossible for the ancient Yisraelites to have been so-called “whites.”

And furthermore, the great emancipator Moses himself was raised as Pharaoh’s grandson – at a time when Pharaoh sought to destroy all Hebrew male babies! So for the Egyptian Pharaoh to have issued such an edict with any credibility, the Hebrew infant Moses had to have passed as his grandson. Now could Moses have possibly been a “white” baby in the royal court of a “black” Hamitic king and go undetected? Obviously not.

The scripture even tells us that the adult Moses was initially mistaken by the daughters of Yithro his father-in-law to be an Egyptian. So Mosheh’s physical characteristics are thus recorded in scripture as being indistinguishable from the Egyptian descendants of Kham, the universally acknowledged progenitor of the so-called “black” African nations. Clearly, and beyond any doubt, the ancient Hebrew Yisraelites, like the ancient Egyptians, were a “black-skinned” people.

GENESIS 15:13

The next step in determining the true identity of Yisrael and Yahudah, the disputed principal party in YAHUWAH’s ‘New Covenant,’ is to discover how the scriptures characterize their divine purpose and ultimate destiny. What was to be the fate of the chosen people in the last days? And again, we must look to the Genesis of Yisrael – the original vision and design for the holy nation – as well as the promises of divine blessings and dominion given to our father Abraham.

It is no mere “coincidence” that on the same day that YAHUWAH made His covenant with Abram, giving his seed the land from the Nile (in Egypt and Ethiopia) to the Euphrates (in the so-called Middle East), He also revealed to him what manner of affliction his posterity would endure before the inheritance would be theirs; just as the ultimate seed of Abraham, Christ Himself, would endure the cross before receiving the keys to the Kingdom. SÉLAH.

Now YAHUWAH said to Abram, “Know of a surety that your seed shall be a stranger in a land that is not theirs, and shall serve them, and they shall afflict them four hundred years.” (Gen.15:13). Western scholars and theologians, to a man, have insisted that this revelation was fulfilled with the Egyptian bondage, and ended with the Exodus under Moses. This miscalculation is based for the most part, on a misreading of Exodus 12:40, which says, “Now the sojourning of the children of Yisrael, who dwelt in Egypt, was four hundred and thirty years.” But notice what this verse does not say. He does not say that the bondage of the children of Yisrael lasted four hundred years, but rather, their sojourning.

This verse is simply referring to the full extent of the sojourning of Yisrael from Abraham to the Exodus... And the apostle Paul bears this out by telling us that the law of Moses came four hundred thirty years after the covenant with Abraham; and did not make the original promise (which was by faith, and before the Levitical priesthood) of no effect. (Gal. 3:16-17).

This means that according to mainstream Christian and ‘Jewish’ theology, a mere thirty years after the covenant was made with Abraham, the four-hundred-year bondage would have begun, and the children of Yisrael would have been enslaved by the Egyptians. But thirty years after that Covenant was made, Ya’aqob himself, who was to become the patriarch of the twelve tribes of Yisrael, was not yet born; much less were the generations of Yisraelites who would proceed from his loins and suffer Egyptian bondage. SÉLAH.

In fact, Mosheh-Moses’ grandfather Kohath was one of the original seventy souls that entered into Egypt during the time of favor under Yosef-Joseph. So it becomes crystal clear to any honest observer – to any sincere seeker of truth – that the prophecy of Genesis 15:13 was in no wise fulfilled by the Egyptian enslavement of the ancient Hebrew Yisraelites.

Clearly, this critical word of prophecy from YAHUWAH was intended to reveal to Abraham, and to us, what would befall the chosen people in the last days. And at a point in time subsequent to the bondage in Egypt. And therefore, to accurately identify the core of the natural seed of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob in the modern world, one must simply determine what nation of people has actually endured the great affliction as foretold in Genesis 15:13.

THE TRANS-ATLANTIC SLAVE TRADE

In all of recorded history, only one nation of people have ever been continuously afflicted in the land of their oppressors for anything even remotely approaching a four-hundred-year period: the so-called African slaves and their descendants, under the United States of America. SÉLAH.

In the book of Deuteronomy, Moses prophesied concerning the children of Yisrael, saying, “And YAHUWAH shall bring you into Egypt again with ships... and there you shall be sold unto your enemies for bondmen and bondwomen, and no man shall redeem you.” (Deut. 28:68). This verse of scripture reveals that the Hebrew Yisraelites would also endure another more insidious form of bondage; one in which there was no possibility of redemption after a set period of time, as was the case with the humane form of indentured servitude practiced among the civilized world of that day. It further reveals that Yisrael would be enslaved with ships; clearly indicating that this new “Egypt” would be a land reachable only by sea...

In fact, the whole 28th chapter of Deuteronomy unmistakably outlines a form of slavery theretofore unknown; one in which the Yisraelites would not only lose their freedom, but their very identity – their true history, culture and religion; yea, their very humanity. And this chilling prophecy was without question fulfilled, by the most horrific method of national disintegration ever devised; through the most cruel and barbaric form of slavery in the annals of recorded human history: the Trans-Atlantic slave trade.

Let it also be known that the bulk of those who were brought to the Western hemisphere in ships were the descendants of the ‘Judean’ diaspora into Africa, brought on by the Roman destruction of Yerushalayim (Jerusalem) in 70 A.D., and recorded for posterity by the noted ancient historian Yosef-Josephus.

(Note: at that point in time, for the most part, it was the southern Kingdom of Yahudah that dwelt in the land of our fathers, with the ten northern tribes of the Kingdom of Yisrael having long since been dispersed; primarily into ancient Arsareth [America] under the Assyrian captivity in 722 B.C.)

These displaced Yahudim (the true Jews) were most often enslaved and persecuted among the Hamitic nations as well. As a result, most were driven westward until finally arriving on the west coast of Africa, where they were eventually bought and sold. And thus, the children of the Trans-Atlantic slave trade are the actual descendants of the southern Kingdom, consisting of the tribes of Yahudah, Benyamin and Lewi – the rulers by divine edict over the nation of Yisrael as a whole, and the tribes who are responsible for establishing order and unity in the Commonwealth.

STOLEN IDENTITY

Finally, in determining the rightful and legal executors of the Holy Covenants, it is very critical to point out that the chastisement of Yisrael prophesied in Deuteronomy is a fate that has never befallen those widely perceived to be true Yahudah today: the Ashkenazi, Khazarian and Sephardic Jews dwelling northern Africa, Europe, the land of Yisrael and America. Can't clearly, this nation of people referring to themselves as "Jewish" could not possibly be the actual physical descendants of the ancient Yahudim simply because they fail to meet the criteria revealed by the Hebrew prophets concerning their racial and ethnic origins, as well as the wretched conditions that would come upon and overtake Yisrael in the last days. Plain and simple.

Notwithstanding the horrific suffering they endured at the hands of the Nazis, the 'Jewish' people have in no wise been subjected to the divine chastisement of disenfranchisement and dehumanization, including the very loss of national and ethnic identity as foretold by the prophets. Period. And therefore, it becomes necessary to discover the true identity of the modern-day "Jewish" population, to fully establish the destiny and purpose of the actual seed of Yisrael.

Now since these Yaphetic "Jews" who currently control the Promised Land are not the actual descendants of the ancient Kingdom of Yahudah, then who are they? And why until just recently, has the whole world assumed them to be the true Yisrael? Once again, we must turn to the book of beginnings, Genesis, for the surprising answer to this profound mystery.

In Genesis, we read concerning the sons of Noah, that the European nations descended not from Shem, the father of the Hebrews, but rather, from Noah's youngest son, Yapheth. So then, the 'Jewish' people, many of whom so hastily brand anyone who would dare find fault with their people in any way as "anti-Semites," are in fact not a "Semitic" people themselves. SÉLAH.

And although there are certainly sincere seekers of YAHUWAH among their ranks, this key point is critical in understanding why as a whole, this "nation" of people have erroneously believed themselves to be the descendants of the ancient Yahudim, and have been so widely perceived and accepted as such. And ironically, in the same passage of scripture used by "Talmudic Judaism" to conclude that so-called "blacks" are the cursed descendants of Ham, there lies a great mystery that veils the real truth about Yaphetic claims to the promises of Abraham.

Now the great patriarch Noah, beyond his alleged curse upon Ham (it was actually Canaan), prophesied that YAHUWAH would "...enlarge Yapheth, and he shall dwell in the tents of Shem, and Canaan shall be his servant." (Gen.10:27). In the King James version of the Torah, the word 'enlarge' in this verse is rendered in the margin as 'persuade,' which is closer to the actual meaning of the original Hebrew word Mosheh used. In the original Hebrew, the word translated enlarge is the word 'Pathah,' which means to entice, or even to deceive...

Amazingly, what Noah prophesied was that the descendants of his son Yapheth would be enticed and persuaded by YAHUWAH to dwell in the land of Shem, Noah's chosen son, and to enslave the descendants of his cursed grandson, Canaan. More specifically, Caucasian converts from the Eastern European nation of Khazaria and certain Germanic descendants of Yapheth would occupy the land of the Hebrew Yisraelites (the chosen line of Shem) and dominate its occupants while under a strong delusion.

So then, the Ashkenazi and Khazarian “Jews” are in reality, the descendants of Yapheth, and not of Shem. And for purposes of establishing the eternal Kingdom to come, they were destined to both assume the identity and occupy the land of Yisrael under YAHUWAH's persuasion, while fully believing themselves to be the physical seed of Abraham. And surely, the fulfillment of Noah's prophecy is also YAHUWAH's divine chastisement upon the natural children of Yisrael for our rebellion and disobedience in rejecting our ancient birthright.

DIVINE DESTINY

Let it be known and understood this day, before America and the world, that Almighty YAHUWAH, in His Divine providence, did allow the sacred inheritance to fall temporarily into the hands of a deluded nation, to prepare the land for her rightful inhabitants; and to provoke the true children of Yisrael to jealousy, as it is written; and that we as a people may repent, and return to the GOD of our fathers in righteousness; and that the promise to Abraham of his seed inheriting the Promised land forever may be gloriously fulfilled!

Hear O “Black America,” and hearken, you inhabitants of the earth: It is written, “From beyond the rivers of Ethiopia, my worshipers, even the daughter of my dispersed, shall bring mine offering.” (Zeph. 3:10). And “...it shall come to pass in the place where it was said to them, you are not My people; there it shall be said to them, you are the sons of the living GOD.” (Hos. 1:10).

Now behold: the true identity of the children of the Tran-Atlantic slave trade, from beyond the rivers of Ethiopia – Africa and the Western Hemisphere – is the true Hebrew Yisraelite descendants of the ancient Kingdom of Yahudah. And together with descendants of the ten northern tribes of ancient Yisrael, who are the true indigenous Americans, and our brethren of both Yisraelite nations who remain scattered around the world; we, the true chosen people of the GOD of Abraham, Yitzhaq and Ya'aqob, are undoubtedly, the rightful and legal executors of the Holy Covenants, and the primary heirs thereof.

Even so, Amen.
