HIDDEN LEGACY: The True Identity and Destiny of 'Black' Americans

"And YAHUWAH shall bring you into Egypt again with ships... and there you shall be sold to your enemies for bondmen and bondwomen, and no man shall redeem you." – Deuteronomy 28:68

It has often been said that "The most segregated hour in American life is eleven a.m. on Sunday morning." This familiar saying, however ironic, is surely a manifest truth. In fact, the so-called Judeo-Christian tradition, while claiming to hold the solution to the evils of racism, has in reality, been its leading advocate.

Following the lead of "Talmudic Judaism" and its heretical Curse of Ham doctrine, Greco-Roman Churchianity has provided the underlying rationale for 'White Supremacy' – the great deception, which lies at the root of all ethnic and theological misunderstanding. In its wake, this damnable heresy has left the world, and even well-meaning believers, in an endless cycle of covetousness, competition and confusion.

Now, as you know, from Genesis to the Revelation of Christ, the Bible was written within an ancient Hebraic cultural framework. But the Holy Covenants have been grossly mishandled by the religious institutions of the Western World. And sadly, this pseudo-Christian distortion of divine truth has created a spiritual crisis that beggars description…

For some five centuries now, from the onset of the European Renaissance – and the cultural genocide of the true ("black") Jews through chattel slavery – the world has been deliberately misled into believing that the great patriarchs of the Bible, the ancient Hebrew Yisraelites, were "white" Ashkenazi and Khazarian Japhetics: Non-Shemitic "Jews."

Indeed. In 1496, a mere four years after the Roman Catholic expulsion of defiant "black-skinned" Hebrew Yisraelites from Spain and Portugal, the infamous Italian artist Michelangelo, and others, were commissioned by the Vatican usurpers to create portraits and statues of Biblical figures, well-known for centuries as Ibriy Yisraelim (Hebrew Yisraelites), in their own Euro-Gentile image and likeness. And yet, to this day, corporate Churchianity continues to insist that "The color line has been washed away by the blood of Jesus" – and that somehow, indigenous identity no longer applies… And so the story goes.

Surely, the scourge of White Supremacy is a demonic stronghold that must be uprooted and destroyed! But then, how can that actually be done? The answer is simple: by revealing the true national identity of the primary target of global racism – the so-called Black American people.

For example, due to the disguised and involuntary presence of true Judah in America; of the scores of ethnic groups represented in the U.S., we as so-called "African Americans" are the only group referred to continentally, rather than with a national identity. Notice that all other ethnic groups gathered in America from around the world, are knitted together and defined within the history and heritage of a common land, language and lifestyle: Ethiopian Americans, Scottish Americans, Mexican Americans, Korean Americans and so on.

So, how can the so-called Black man's place in America finally be understood, and his place in the world respected, while his true nationality remains a mystery? Ironically, the solution to this age-old dilemma is the key, not only to ending the myth of Euro-Gentile superiority; but to establish both ethnic and doctrinal unity in the Body of Christ. Sélah.

THE LEGAL AND RIGHTFUL EXECUTORS

It is written, "Behold, the days come says YAHUWAH, that I will make a new covenant with the house of Yisrael and with the house of Yahudah" (Jer. 31:31).

Clearly, this is an ancient prophetic revelation of the New Testament, ratified by the shed blood of Yahushua (Heb. 8:8). And if the body of Christ at large is to finally receive its manifold blessings, including the ever-elusive ethnic and doctrinal unity of the faith, she must do so within the specific terms of The Covenant. Now, as with any contract, as a binding legal agreement, the New Testament was entered into by two principal parties. And the identity of the first party is universally agreed upon: The Eternal I AM Himself! But – when it comes to the identity of the second party, much controversy remains. The Kingdom Commonwealth at large must finally come to terms with the fact, that until this matter is resolved, any efforts toward seeing the eternal promises of the Covenant fulfilled are ultimately in vain. So despite its theological complexities, the first order of business is simple: We must come to a full understanding of the Divine Contract. And we must begin that process by accurately identifying the principal parties involved.

ABRAM OF UR

Despite the raging controversy over the true identity of the descendants of Ya'aqob, there is no such dispute when it comes to identifying the original father of the Hebrew Yisraelites: Abraham. And in order to determine the racial and ethnic characteristics of Yahudah and Yisrael, and accurately identify the Covenant's second principal party, we must of course, begin at the beginning: We must first establish the race and ethnicity of Abraham. And for purposes of this basic overview, our doing so will be brief and directly to the point.

Now, according to Genesis 11, Abraham is originally from a city-state called Ur of the Chaldees. This area was located in what is modern day Iraq. And from every objective indicator – scriptural, archaeological, anthropological, geographical and historical – that region of the world was at that time, and to a great extent even today, populated by a "black-skinned" people. For example, medieval artistic renderings of the Judean exiles in Babylon, and the Chaldeans, the indigenous people of the region, consistently present a dark skinned, woolly-haired Asiatic appearance.

And furthermore, common knowledge says it is a physiological impossibility for a "white-skinned" people to have long withstood the routine one-hundred-degree-plus temperatures that were the norm in the land of Ur. Therefore, the ancient Chaldeans obviously had to be melanated. Even today, that region of the world is not populated by "white" Ashkenazis or Khazarians.

And so, the bizarre assumption that Abram of Ur was "white-skinned," and that without any empirical evidence whatsoever, is patently absurd on its face. Abraham is obviously a dark-skinned, woolly-haired man, just as were the rest of the indigenous peoples of the region.

THE SEVENTY SOULS

The Torah tells us that Abraham's direct descendants, the Hebrew Yisraelites, while sojourning in Egypt for two hundred and fifteen years [not four hundred years], multiplied from seventy souls to in excess of six hundred thousand men, not including women and children, at the time of the Exodus under Moshéh-Moses. And unlike their Hebrew counterparts, the Egyptians were descended from Ham, the son of Noah, who is universally recognized as the father of the African nations. Therefore, the ancient Egyptians were also a "black-skinned" people.

Now, how else could the children of Yisrael grow from seventy souls into a multitude of millions in Egypt, without mass intermarriage with Egyptian and other Hamitic women? As it is written, the children of Yisrael came out of Egypt under Moses as a mixed multitude. This simple fact alone, makes it impossible for the ancient Yisraelites to have been "white."

Furthermore, the great emancipator Moses himself was raised as Pharaoh's grandson, at a time when Pharaoh sought to destroy all male Hebrew babies. So, for the Egyptian Pharaoh to issue such an edict with any credibility, the Hebrew infant Moses had to pass as his grandson. Now could Moses have possibly been a "white" baby in the royal court of a "black" Hamitic king and go undetected? Obviously not.

The scripture even tells us that the adult Moses was initially mistaken by the daughters of Yithro his father-in-law to be an Egyptian. So Moshéh's physical characteristics are thus recorded in scripture as being indistinguishable from the Egyptian descendants of Kham, the universally acknowledged progenitor of the so-called black African nations. Clearly, and beyond any doubt, the ancient Hebrew Yisraelites, like the ancient Egyptians, were a dark-skinned people.

GENESIS 15:13

The next step in determining the true identity of Yisrael and Yahudah, the disputed principal party in Abba YAH's New Covenant, is to discover how the scriptures characterize their divine purpose and ultimate destiny. What was to be the fate of the chosen people in the last days? Again, we must look to the Genesis of Yisrael, the original vision and design for the holy nation, as well as the promises of divine blessings and dominion given to our father Abraham.

Now, it is no mere coincidence that on the same day YAHUWAH made His covenant with Abram, giving his seed the land from the Nile [in Africa] to the Euphrates [in Eurasia], He also revealed to His servant what manner of affliction his posterity would endure before the inheritance would be theirs; just as the ultimate seed of Abraham, Christ Himself, would endure the cross, before receiving the keys to the Kingdom… As it is written, "Now YAHUWAH said to Abram,

'Know of a surety that your seed shall be a stranger in a land that is not theirs, and shall serve them, and they shall afflict them four hundred years'" (Gen.15:13).

Western scholars and theologians, to a man, have insisted that Yisrael's most definitive end-time prophecy was fulfilled with the Egyptian bondage, and ended with the Exodus under Moses. But this assumption is based on a miscalculation; which for the most part, comes from a casual misreading of Exodus 12:40, which reads, "Now the sojourning of the children of Yisrael who dwelt in Egypt was four hundred and thirty years." Now notice what Moses does not say. He does not say that their affliction lasted four hundred thirty years, but rather, their sojourning.

Clearly, the passage is simply referring to the full extent of the sojourning of Yisrael from Abraham to the Exodus.

And the apostle Paul profoundly bears this out; by revealing to us that the Law of Moses came four hundred thirty years after the covenant with Abraham; "…and did not make the original promise, which was by faith, and before the Levitical priesthood, not have its promised effect" (Gal. 3:17). Sélah.

And therefore, saints – according to mainstream "Judeo-Christian" theology, Exodus 12:40 states that a mere thirty years after the Abrahamic Covenant, the four-hundred-year bondage began, and the children of Yisrael were enslaved by the Egyptians. But obviously, thirty years after that Covenant was made, Ya'aqob himself, who became the patriarch of the twelve tribes of Yisrael, was not yet born; much less, the distant generation of Yisraelites who would proceed from his loins and suffer Egyptian bondage. In fact, Moses' grandfather Kohath was one of the original seventy souls that entered into Egypt during the time of favor under Joseph.

So, it becomes crystal clear to any honest observer – to any sincere seeker of truth – that the prophecy of Genesis 15:13 was in no wise fulfilled by the Egyptian enslavement of the Hebrew Yisraelites.

This crucial passage of scripture from Moses was intended to reveal to all nations, and to us, what would befall the chosen people in the last days. And at a point in time subsequent to the bondage in Egypt. And so, to accurately identify the true seed of Abraham, Yitzhaq and Ya'aqob in the modern world, one must simply determine what nation of people has actually endured the Great Affliction, as foretold in Genesis 15:13.

THE TRANS-ATLANTIC SLAVE TRADE

In all of recorded history, only one nation of people has ever been continuously afflicted in the land of their oppressors for anything even remotely approaching a four-hundred-year period: The supposed African slaves, and their descendants, under the United States of America.

In the book of Deuteronomy, Moses prophesied concerning the children of Yisrael, saying, "And YAHUWAH shall bring you into Egypt again with ships... and there you shall be sold unto your enemies for bondmen and bondwomen, and no man shall redeem you" (Deut. 28:68). This verse of scripture reveals that the Hebrew Yisraelites would also endure another more insidious form of bondage – one in which there was no possibility of redemption after a set period of time, as was the case with the humane form of indentured servitude practiced among the Hebrews of that day. It further reveals that Yisraelites would be enslaved with ships; indicating that this new Egypt would be a distant land reachable only by sea.

Clearly, the twenty-eighth chapter of Deuteronomy unmistakably outlines a form of slavery theretofore unknown; whereby the true Jews would not only lose their freedom, but their very identity – their true history, culture and religion; yea, their very humanity. And this chilling prophecy was without question fulfilled, by the most horrific method of national disintegration ever devised; through the cruelest and most barbaric form of slavery in the annals of recorded human history: The Trans-Atlantic slave trade.

Let it also be known and understood, that those who were brought to the New World in slave ships were descendants of the Judean Diaspora, caused by the Roman destruction of Jerusalem in 70 C.E. – along with a Vatican-created, "black" population earmarked for slavery, through the diabolical Spanish Inquisition of 1492; by the expulsion of non-converted Yahudim (the true Jews) sojourning in Spain and Portugal into northern and western Africa.

Gradually, the vast majority of these despised Hebrew foreigners were captured and enslaved by the rulers and slaveholders of several prosperous West African Empires. And ironically, starting with the creation of chattel slavery in 1562, the real Jews were auctioned off primarily to the wealthy European "Jewish" impostors who introduced the anti-Judean Trans-Atlantic trade. Indeed.

(Note: At the time of the destruction of Jerusalem, it was the southern Kingdom of Yahudah that fled into Africa; while the Samaritans, the small 'interracial' community of northern Hebrew Yisraelites mixed with imported Assyrians, remained in the region; with the vast majority of the ten divorced tribes having long since been dispersed, primarily into Arzareth-Amerïca, after the Assyrian conquest in 722 B.C.)

And thus, "black" American slaves, and we, their posterity, are in fact the true descendants of the ancient Kingdom of Yahudah; consisting of the tribes of Yahudah, Benyamïn and Levï – and the Royal House of Davïd: The key tribes responsible for establishing and maintaining national law, order and freedom; and the rulers through Divine delegation, of the New Kingdom Commonwealth of Yisrael.

STOLEN IDENTITY

Finally, in determining the rightful and legal executors of the Holy Covenants, it is crucial to point out that the chastisement of Yisrael prophesied in Deuteronomy is a fate that has never befallen those widely perceived to be true Yahudah today: The Ashkenazi and Khazarian Gentiles dwelling in Europe, eretz Yisrael and America.

Obviously, this nation of people referred to as "Jewish" could not possibly be the actual physical descendants of the ancient Yahudim, simply because they fail to meet the criteria revealed by the Hebrew prophets concerning their racial and ethnic origins, as well as the deplorable conditions that would come upon and overtake Yisrael in the last days. Plain and simple.

Notwithstanding the horrific suffering they endured at the hands of the Nazis, the "Jewish" people have in no wise been subjected to the divine chastisement of disenfranchisement and dehumanization, including the very loss of national and ethnic identity, as foretold by the prophets. Period. And therefore, it becomes necessary to discover the true identity of the modern-day Jewish population, to fully establish the destiny and purpose of the actual descendants of ancient Yisrael.

Now, since these Japhetic "Jews" who currently control the Promised Land are not the actual descendants of the Kingdom of Yahudah, then who are they? And why until just recently, has the whole world assumed them to be Biblical Yisrael? Once again, we must turn to the book of beginnings, Genesis, for the surprising answer to this profound mystery. In Genesis, we read concerning the sons of Noah, that the European nations descended not from Shem, the father of the Hebrews, but rather, from Noah's youngest son, Yaphet. So, the Jewish people, many of whom so hastily brand anyone who would dare find fault with their people in any way as "anti-Semites," are in fact not a Shemitic people themselves. And although there are certainly sincere seekers of YAHUWAH among their ranks, this key point is critical in understanding why as a whole, this nation of people have erroneously believed themselves to be the descendants of the ancient Yahudim, and have been so widely perceived and accepted as such.

Ironically, in the same passage of scripture used by "Talmudic Judaism" to conclude that "blacks" are the cursed descendants of Ham, there lies a great mystery that veils the real truth about Yaphetic claims to the promises of Abraham. Notice that the great patriarch Noah, beyond his alleged curse upon Ham (it was actually Canaan), prophesied that Abba YAH would "...enlarge Yaphet, and he shall dwell in the tents of Shem, and Canaan shall be his servant" (Gen. 10:27). In the King James version of the Torah, the word 'enlarge' in this verse is rendered in the margin as "persuade," which is closer to the actual meaning of the Hebrew word Mosheh used. In the Hebrew tongue, the word translated enlarge is the word 'Pathah,' which means "to entice or to deceive."

Amazingly, what Noah prophesied was that the descendants of his son Yaphet would be enticed and persuaded by Almighty YAH Himself, to dwell in the land of Shem, Noah's chosen son, and to enslave the descendants of his cursed grandson, Canaan, and others. More specifically, the Caucasian converts from the Eurasian gentile nation of Khazaria, and certain Germanic descendants of Yaphet, would occupy the land of the Hebrew Yisraelites (the chosen line of Shem) and dominate its non-Yisraelite occupants, while under a strong delusion.

So then, the Ashkenazi and Khazarian nations are in reality, descended from Yaphet, and not from Shem. And for purposes of establishing the eternal Kingdom to come, they were destined to both assume the identity and occupy the land of ancient Yisrael under YAHUWAH's persuasion, while fully believing themselves to be the physical seed of Abraham. And surely – the fulfillment of Noah's prophecy is also YAHUWAH's Divine chastisement upon we, the natural children of Yisrael, for our national rebellion and disobedience in rejecting our Divine birthright. Sélah.

DIVINE DESTINY

Let it be known and understood this day, before America and the world, that Almighty YAH, in His Divine providence, did indeed allow His sacred inheritance of the ancient united Kingdom of Yisrael to fall into the hands of a deluded people; to prepare the land for her rightful inhabitants; and to provoke the true children of the Promise to jealousy, as it is written; and that we as a people may repent, and return to the GOD of our fathers in righteousness; and that the promise to Abraham of his faithful seed inheriting the Promised Land forever may be gloriously fulfilled…

In Spirit And In Truth: The Divine Destiny Of The Coming New United Kingdom Of Yisrael Is To Serve The Redeemed Of Christ At Large, As Royal High Priests, After The Order Of Melchizedek; To The End That The Entire New Kingdom Commonwealth May Be Fully Confirmed In The Royal Priesthood; The Faithful Remnant Of Hebrew Yisraelites In Christ, And The Adopted Sons Of The Covenants; From Every Kindred, Tribe, Tongue, Nation And People: To Establish An Authentic Unity Of The Faith; In Preparation For The Triumphant Revelation Of Our Eternal High Priest, Yahushua Ha Mashiach; Ruling And Reigning Over The Heavens And The Earth, In Everlasting Righteousness, Joy And Peace.

A ROYAL DECREE

Hear, O "Black" Amerïca; and hearken, you inhabitants of the earth: The true identity of the children of the Trans-Atlantic slave trade; sold by West African empires to European Ashkenazi "Jewish" traffickers; is in fact, the Hebrew Yisraelite descendants of the ancient Kingdom of Yahudah. And together with the descendants of the ten northern tribes of ancient Yisrael – who are the true indigenous Amerïcans – and our beloved brethren of both Yisraelite nations who remain scattered around the world; we, the chosen people of the GOD of Abraham, Yitzhaq and Ya'aqob in Christ, are the primary heirs of the Holy Covenants, and the legal and rightful executors thereof.

As it is written, "From beyond the rivers of Ethiopia, my worshippers, even the daughter of my dispersed, shall bring mine offering" (Zeph. 3:10). And surely, "...it shall come to pass in the place where it was said to them, you are not My people; there it shall be said to them, you are the sons of the living GOD" (Hos. 1:10). Indeed.
